ORGANIC WEAKNESS.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS.

Immediately cured and full vigor restored.

This distressing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of improper includences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system of both body and render the physicial and Mental becames deranged, the Physicial and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Philitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debnitty, and Wasting of the Frame Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.

DR. JOHNSON, DR. JOHNSON,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere; has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known,
many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being ears when asleep, great nervousness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately. TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and soli-tary habits, which ruin both body and mind, anniting them for either business, study, so tary habits, which rain both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, so clety or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muccular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Pyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing thair vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption.

YOUNG MEN

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in when alone, a habit nequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly lent, even when asleep, and, if not cured, render marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a plity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be enatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating markings, reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote commital happiness. Indeed; without these the journey through life becomes a weary pigrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another become blighted with our own. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame of dread of discovery deters him from applying to those, who from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying ill the constitutional symptoms of this horn disease make their appearance, such as allerated sore throat, dieased nose, nocturnapains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight dearness, nodes on the shin-bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bense of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awild disease becomes a horrid object commisseration, till death puts a period tohis dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns." DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

It is a MELANCHOLY FACT that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskillfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that DEADLA POISON, MERCURY, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miserable. DR. JOHNSTON, Office No. 7 South Frederick Street
